

Looking Back – Look Forward: Sources of Artistic Inspiration

June 12 - September 1, 2025

Martin Luther King Memorial Library, Floor 1 (West)

901 G Street NW, Washington DC 20001

This exhibition honors the Washington Sculptors Group's forty years in the D.C. arts community, while highlighting the role that DC Public Library plays as the archive for much of the District's cultural history. Through an open call, WSG members were invited to submit work created responding to materials in archival collections held by the Library, or to concepts embodied by the Library itself and its role as community gathering space.

Jurors for the exhibition include: Linnea Hegarty, Director of Events, Exhibits and Development at the DC Public Library; Babette Pendleton, Program Manager for the Corcoran / National Gallery Partnership; and Dr. Michelle May-Curry, Curator, DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities and core faculty in Georgetown University's Master's program in Engaged and Public Humanities.

This project is supported in part by the DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities, which receives support from the National Endowment for the Arts.

The Washington Sculptors Group is a volunteer, non-profit organization dedicated to promoting awareness of sculpture and fostering exchanges among sculptors, sculpture enthusiasts and the public. Organized in 1984, membership has grown to over 400; WSG sponsors frequent public programs and organizes professional sculpture exhibitions juried by prominent curators. Visit www.washingtonsculptors.org to join WSG, to view the Web Gallery of members' work, and to subscribe to the WSG newsletter.
